Dear Pastor and friends,

It has been a longterm desire to create a European platform for mass evangelism. A team of dedicated workers put together an event targeting 15 to 25-year-olds and we held that event in July. At the conclusion of the service we want to try something brand-new for Europe by calling for a public demonstration of faith. When the invitation was given 26 people stood to this he walked across the stage signal and they desired to know more about Jesus and have a life change. Two had come to Christ earlier in the week, making 28 decision in total.

We are utterly amazed at the response was received now we have begun follow-up of those 18 public professions of faith. 10 have already begun to attend church services and we have further contact with others during mini-events designed to establish lasting relationships.

If you are available to assist in writing mysql software code for a follow-up system, I would like to hear from you. I can be contacted via the website: keithgandy.com

Our team is encouraged and excited about the future. We will attempt to have yet another event this year if we can find the venue that has a date open. Presently we are leaning towards November of this year. That clashes with local dates, so pray with us that a facility will become available.

A further open door has been to minister to Moslems with in our community. A young husband and father named Shayan, heads up this ministry that offers a worship and teaching environment to an Iranian community. Out of that community attached to our church, two young women have now professed faith and followed in believer's baptism. Last Sunday we baptized a total of three people and will baptize again this year.

You can play a major role in the shaping of Shayan's ministry. He needs $400 to provide Bibles to a growing list of believer's that he shepherds. Sunday afternoons at 1 PM 20-25 young Iranians meet on campus and dig into the Word. Their stories are absolutely incredible to hear; in miraculous ways God is speaking to this group. Shayan champions the ministry to this group.

God has been so good - and your partnership is making an incredible difference.

Yours, in His service,

Keith and Debbie Gandy
